REHOBOTH'S 325th YEAR

BIRTHPLACE OF PUBLIC EDUCATION IN AMERICA

IN APPRECIATION

In conjunction with the three hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the town of Rehoboth, we extend our appreciation to the residents of Rehoboth for providing us with an exceptional education program. Since Rehoboth is the birthplace of public education in America, we feel honored to have been able to participate in many events of this celebration, such as the restoration of the Hornbine School and the Founders' Day program. These events have recalled to us the value of our heritage.

Look to this day!
For it is life, the very life of life...
For yesterday is already a dream,
and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well lived makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness, and every tomorrow
a vision of hope.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

FOOTBALL PEP RALLIES

Your friendly on-the-scene sports reporter, Dave Bilodeau, interviewed members of the team to get an idea of the strategy for the next day.

The cheerleaders are not the only ones who put their hearts into cheering for D-R.

The class of 1968 broke tradition with a dance sponsored the night after the Oliver Ames game with music by The Dakotas. All previous post-football game dances had been record hops.

Not bad!

Freedom of expression through dress was certainly observed at the traditional Sadie Hawkins Dance held on November 4, 1967 by the senior class.

There's always a ham in the crowd.

Marryin' Sam (Dave Bilodeau) had a busy evening — to the point of marrying two teachers by proxy. The auction and the jug band contributed greatly to the dance's success.

The Student Council sponsored a minstrel show to raise money to buy and restore the Hornbine School the last one-room public school house to close its doors in Rehoboth.

ANNABELLE LEE

The D-R faculty definitely helped to make the show a success. Also included were dancing choruses, soloists, the D-R chorus, and a junior high group.

May the road rise to meet you
May the wind be ever at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
And the rains fall soft across your fields
And . . . until we meet again —
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.
(Old Welsh prayer)
